75 Reasons to Attend our 35th Reunion

Dear Classmates,

I am writing to you not only as your class president but also as a person who has had the good fortune to have met or become reacquainted with many of you during the past five years at various class events, such as off-year reunions, mini-reunions, and Kick-Offs for our 35th Reunion.

Our upcoming 35th Reunion from Thursday, May 27 – Sunday, May 30 is going to be fabulous!!! First of all, I have observed firsthand the friendliness, openness and welcoming nature of classmates and the bonds which are being forged and re-forged among us at this time in our lives. This truly has been heartwarming and extraordinary.

Secondly, due to the high number of early registrations from so many of you, our fantastic Reunion Co-Chairs, Bill and Gail Baumbach, have the funds to provide great food, drink, and entertainment at this Reunion. Bill, Gail and the Reunion committee members have done a phenomenal job planning it!

So . . . if you do not attend at least one full day of our 35th Reunion, you will miss a terrific experience. The title of my letter, "75 Reasons to Attend Our Thirty-fifth Reunion," is actually an understatement. There are more than 75 reasons to return to campus (the list of reasons can be found on our website www.princeton75.org). I feel so strongly about this that I am tempted to offer a money-back guarantee assuring you a good time!

Since we all know that economic times have been rocky, if finances are keeping you from attending our 35th, please contact Bill Baumbach at wbaumbach@verizon.net. He handles requests for reduced fees with the utmost discretion. No one should miss our 35th reunion because he or she feels unable to afford it.

On the other side of the coin, please keep your hearts open to making gifts to Annual Giving. Under the "Times for Good Multiplier Fund" established by several of our classmates, $75 will be added to each classmate's gift, plus an additional $35 bonus for classmates who have not given in the past five years. Let's keep those gifts rolling in to the University; a significant proportion of them support the financial aid of current students.

Finally, this is to let you know that Steve Greenberg's and my terms as Vice President and President end on June 30, 2010. The Nominating Committee has assembled an outstanding slate of officers for the next five years. They are Co-Presidents: Julie Raynor Gross and Maureen Kelly Scott; Vice Presidents: Shanta Devarajan, Joe Labatt, Eric Edmunds, and Leona Brenner-Gati. Jay Finkelstein and Lissa Kiser will remain as Treasurer and Secretary, respectively. The election will take place at our Class Dinner on Friday of Reunions.

Looking forward to seeing you at our "Good," make that "Great," Times!!!

With 7 x 5 Locomotives to All,

Ellen Kahn Rampell

P.S. The officers and I still are soliciting suggestions for an honorary classmate(s). To nominate someone for that honor, please contact me at ekrampell@gmail.com. Think of someone who has had a particular connection to us, like a favorite professor, coach, parent or spouse of a classmate.
